What do you know about safeguarding in this school?

Keeping your children safe

The school has a 'duty of care' to keep your child/children safe.

They are required to take action if they feel that a child may not be safe.

What does safeguarding mean?

Safeguarding refers to the way a school keeps children safe.

Head teachers, teachers and all staff are required to take reasonable steps to reduce risk and are often referred to as: 'in Loco Parentis' which means in the place of a parent.
